The following is a copy of the first three sections of the act of 1896, chapter 178, entitled "An act to provide for the registration of births, marriages and deaths in the State of Maryland, and to punish violations of the same," which shall be printed on the back of every blank return of a birth, marriage or death issued by the Registrar of Vital Statistics of Baltimore City:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Board of Health of Baltimore City shall appoint a Registrar of Vital Statistics, who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the Board, and shall receive such salary as the Board may determine, payable monthly by the Comptroller of Baltimore City. The Registrar shall appoint such clerks as may be necessary to perform the duties of his office, and shall receive such salary as the Board may determine, payable monthly by the Comptroller of Baltimore City. The Registrar shall keep his office open for the transaction of business every day in the year except Sundays, Christmas Day, New Year's Day, Thanksgiving Day, Good Friday, and every day on which an election is held in Baltimore City, from 9 o'clock A. M. to 4 o'clock P. M.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the Registrar shall provide and keep a record of births, marriages and deaths, and shall provide blank forms for the return of births, marriages and deaths, and shall prepare and have printed such forms as may be necessary for the proper execution of the duties of his office. The Registrar shall also provide blank forms for the return of births, marriages and deaths, and shall prepare and have printed such forms as may be necessary for the proper execution of the duties of his office. The Registrar shall also provide blank forms for the return of births, marriages and deaths, and shall prepare and have printed such forms as may be necessary for the proper execution of the duties of his office.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the Registrar shall receive and record all returns of births, marriages and deaths, and shall issue certificates of the same, and shall perform all other duties required of him by this act. The Registrar shall receive and record all returns of births, marriages and deaths, and shall issue certificates of the same, and shall perform all other duties required of him by this act. The Registrar shall receive and record all returns of births, marriages and deaths, and shall issue certificates of the same, and shall perform all other duties required of him by this act.

Any person who shall refuse or neglect to report the birth of a child, as required by this section, or who shall report any false information relative thereto, or who shall neglect or refuse to furnish such information relative to the birth as may be in his possession, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars for each offence. And it shall become the duty of the mother, immediately thereafter, if she resides in the same house with the person required to report the birth to the Commissioner of Health, to report to him the particulars required by this section. If the mother shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of this section, she shall be subject to the same penalty as the person required to report the birth. And it shall become the duty of any such person or persons who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of this section shall be subject to the fine of ten (10) dollars for each offence, to be recovered as other fines and forfeitures are recoverable.
